

'THE KING'S SPEECH' AT CHICHESTER FESTIVAL
THEATRE - 12 FEBRUARY 2015
Report by Alan Russett

The February theatre visit was to Chichester. The programme gave time to enjoy the attractions of the ancient city of Chichester before seeing the stage version of the popular film about an Australian therapist treating King George VI for his speech impediment. With Jason Donovan in the lead role, the play appealed to many as having greater immediacy and personal involvement than the film.
