

VISIT TO SALISBURY PLAYHOUSE – 6 NOVEMBER, 2014

Report by Eric Davison

41 members and guests enjoyed a matinee performance of 'Separate Tables' by Terence Rattigan which met the usual high standard of production at this excellent regional theatre. The day started with a pleasant drive through the New Forest and we arrived in time to spend the morning shopping, sightseeing or just enjoying a coffee with friends. There was time for lunch before we settled into our comfortable seats for the performance
