

VISIT TO SALISBURY THEATRE 21
NOVEMBER 2013
"THE RECRUITING OFFICER" BY GEORGE
FARQUHAR
Report by David Jones (Social Secretary)

In accordance with times past this has become part of the Social Event Calendar, a visit to Salisbury starting mid-morning allowing time for morning coffee, some Christmas shopping, then lunch prior to arrival at Salisbury Playhouse for the matinee performance. Fifty came along this time and all went according to plan. The play "The Recruiting Officer" was certainly different to others seen in the past, very nice stage settings and costumes but an unusual presentation and plot for a number in the audience. The actors certainly gave it their all but it was a new experience for many watching but an opportunity to widen our knowledge perhaps!
